Mitsubishi Electric Announces Consolidated Financial Results for the First Half and Second Quarter of Fiscal 2013

Tokyo, October 31, 2012 – Mitsubishi Electric Corporation (TOKYO: 6503) announced today its financial results for the first half and second quarter, ending September 30, 2012, of the current fiscal year ending March 31, 2013 (fiscal 2013).

1. Consolidated Half-year Results (April 1, 2012 – September 30, 2012)

Net sales:	1,696.0 billion yen	(3% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income:	89.6 billion yen	(21% decrease from the same period last year)
Income before income taxes:	72.7 billion yen	(31% decrease from the same period last year)
Net income attributable to Mitsubishi Electric Corp.:	43.6 billion yen	(37% decrease from the same period last year)

During the first half of fiscal 2013, the economy saw a downturn in Japan which experienced a downward trend in production and export, and continuous slowdown in Europe and Asia, while the U.S. economy remained buoyant. Meanwhile, Japanese yen remained strong against U.S. dollars and euros.

Under these circumstances, consolidated net sales for the first half of fiscal 2013 was 1,696.0 billion yen, a 3% decrease compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year, mainly owing to decreased revenues in the Industrial Automation Systems, Electronic Devices and Home Appliances segments. Operating income marked 89.6 billion yen, decreasing by 21% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year, due to lower profits mainly in the Industrial Automation Systems, Electronic Devices and Home Appliances segments.

Consolidated Financial Results by Business Segment (First Half, Fiscal 2013)

Energy and Electric Systems

Total sales:	459.5 billion yen	(5% increase from the same period last year)
Operating income:	34.2 billion yen	(5.7 billion yen increase from the same period last year)

The social infrastructure systems business saw a decrease in orders from the same period of the previous fiscal year due primarily to lower demand compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year in which the business experienced recovery demand from the Great East Japan Earthquake, while sales increased from the same period of the previous fiscal year due to an increase in the power generation business worldwide.

The building systems business experienced a decrease in orders compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year mainly due to a decrease in large-scale projects outside Japan, while sales increased compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year owing to growth in demand for renewal of elevators and escalators in Japan as well as for new installations in China.

As a result, total sales for this segment increased by 5% from the same period of the previous fiscal year. Operating income increased from the same period of the previous fiscal year by 5.7 billion yen due to an increase in sales and other factors.

Industrial Automation Systems

Total sales: 456.9 billion yen (6% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income: 33.9 billion yen (22.6 billion yen decrease from the same period last year)

The factory automation systems business saw decreases in both orders and sales from the same period of the previous fiscal year due to lower capital expenditures for semiconductor and flat panel display related investments in China, South Korea and Taiwan.

The automotive equipment business saw increases in both orders and sales from the same period of the previous fiscal year with uplifting support from subsidies for eco-cars in the Japanese market as well as recovery in the North American market, despite stagnation in automobile sales in Europe.

As a result, total sales for this segment decreased by 6% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. Operating income decreased by 22.6 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due primarily to a decrease in sales.

Information and Communication Systems

Total sales: 241.6 billion yen (12% increase from the same period last year)
Operating income: 9.7 billion yen (5.4 billion yen increase from the same period last year)

The telecommunications equipment business saw increases in both orders and sales compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year owing primarily to an increase in communications infrastructures.

The information systems and service business experienced no changes in sales from the same period of the previous fiscal year with decreases in the network and systems operation business and other factors, as well as an increase in the system integration business.

The electronic systems business saw increases in both orders and sales compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to increases in the electronics and space systems businesses.

As a result, total sales for this segment increased by 12% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. Operating income increased by 5.4 billion yen from the same period of the previous fiscal year mainly due to an increase in sales.

Electronic Devices

Total sales: 79.9 billion yen (23% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income (loss): (1.6 billion yen) (7.6 billion yen decline from the same period last year)

The semiconductor business saw decreases in both orders and sales from the same period of the previous fiscal year due to a decline in demand mainly for power modules used in industrial, consumer and railcar applications.

The LCD module business saw an increase in orders, but sales decreased compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to decreases in industrial-use products and other factors.

As a result, total sales for the segment decreased by 23% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. Operating income fell by 7.6 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year mainly due to a decrease in sales.

Home Appliances

Total sales: 423.3 billion yen (8% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income: 16.8 billion yen (6.8 billion yen decrease from the same period last year)

The home appliances business saw a decrease in sales by 8% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due primarily to a large decline in demand for LCD televisions and blu-ray disc recorders for the Japanese market, as well as a decrease in air conditioners for Europe due to the strong yen against euros.

Operating income decreased by 6.8 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to a decrease in sales and other factors.

Others

Total sales:	285.6 billion yen	(5% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income:	7.3 billion yen	(0.4 billion yen decrease from the same period last year)

Sales decreased by 5% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year mainly at affiliated companies involved in materials procurement and logistics.

Operating income decreased by 0.4 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due primarily to a decrease in sales.

2. Consolidated Second-quarter Results (July 1, 2012 – September 30, 2012)

Net sales:	913.2 billion yen	(2% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income:	43.0 billion yen	(30% decrease from the same period last year)
Income before income taxes:	24.7 billion yen	(56% decrease from the same period last year)
Net income attributable to Mitsubishi Electric Corp.:	13.1 billion yen	(69% decrease from the same period last year)

Consolidated net sales for this quarter marked 913.2 billion yen, a 2% decrease from the same period of the previous fiscal year due primarily to decreased revenue in the Industrial Automation Systems, Electronic Devices and Home Appliances segments. Consolidated operating income was 43.0 billion yen, decreasing by 30% from the same period of the previous fiscal year, with decreased profits mainly in the Industrial Automation Systems, Electronic Devices and Home Appliances segments.

Consolidated Financial Results by Business Segment (Second Quarter, Fiscal 2013)

Energy and Electric Systems

Total sales:	254.4 billion yen	(4% increase from the same period last year)
Operating income:	15.9 billion yen	(1.9 billion yen increase from the same period last year)

The social infrastructure systems business saw a decrease in orders from the same quarter of the previous fiscal year due primarily to a decrease in the rolling stock business outside Japan as well as lower demand compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year when the business experienced recovery demand from the Great East Japan Earthquake. Sales in this business meanwhile increased from the same quarter of the previous fiscal year primarily due to an increase in the power generation business worldwide.

The building systems business experienced no changes in orders compared to the same quarter of the previous fiscal year, while sales increased compared to the same quarter of the previous fiscal year owing to increased demand for renewal of elevators and escalators in Japan as well as for new installations in China.

As a result, total sales for this segment increased by 4% from the same quarter of the previous fiscal year. Operating income increased by 1.9 billion yen from the same quarter of the previous fiscal year due primarily to an increase in sales.

Industrial Automation Systems

Total sales: 232.8 billion yen (8% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income: 12.7 billion yen (15.8 billion yen decrease from the same period last year)

The factory automation systems business saw an increase in orders compared to the same quarter of the previous fiscal year mainly in Japan, while sales for this business decreased compared to the same quarter of the previous fiscal year due primarily to lower capital expenditures for semiconductor and flat panel display related investments in China, South Korea and Taiwan.

The automotive equipment business saw no changes in both orders and sales from the same period of the previous fiscal year with uplifting support from subsidies for eco-cars in the Japanese market as well as recovery in the North American market, despite stagnation in automobile sales in Europe.

As a result, total sales for this segment decreased by 8% compared to the same quarter of the previous fiscal year. Operating income decreased by 15.8 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to a decrease in sales and other factors.

Information and Communication Systems

Total sales: 147.1 billion yen (13% increase from the same period last year)
Operating income: 8.9 billion yen (4.3 billion yen increase from the same period last year)

The telecommunications equipment business saw increases in both orders and sales compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year owing primarily to an increase in communications infrastructures.

The information systems and service business experienced no changes in sales from the same period of the previous fiscal year with decreases in the network and systems operation business and other factors, as well as an increase in the system integration business.

The electronic systems business saw increases in both orders and sales compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to increases in the electronics and space systems businesses.

As a result, total sales for this segment increased by 13% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. Operating income increased by 4.3 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to an increase in sales and other factors.

Electronic Devices

Total sales: 40.8 billion yen (25% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income (loss): (1.6 billion yen) (5.2 billion yen decline from the same period last year)

The semiconductor business saw decreases in both orders and sales from the same period of the previous fiscal year due to a decline in demand mainly for power modules used in industrial, consumer and railcar applications.

The LCD module business saw an increase in orders, but sales decreased compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to decreases in industrial-use products and other factors.

As a result, total sales for the segment decreased by 25% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. Operating income fell by 5.2 billion yen from the same period of the previous fiscal year mainly due to a decrease in sales.

Home Appliances

Total sales: 217.4 billion yen (5% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income: 3.8 billion yen (5.1 billion yen decrease from the same period last year)

The home appliances business saw a decrease in sales by 5% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due primarily to a large decline in demand for LCD televisions and blu-ray disc recorders for the Japanese market, as well as a decrease in air conditioners for Europe due to the strong yen against euros.

Operating income declined by 5.1 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to a decrease in sales and other factors.

Others

Total sales: 154.1 billion yen (5% decrease from the same period last year)
Operating income: 6.6 billion yen (Unchanged from the same period last year)

Sales decreased by 5% compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year mainly at affiliated companies involved in materials procurement and logistics.

Operating income was unchanged compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year.

Financial Condition (Consolidated Basis)

Assets, Liabilities, and Shareholders' Equity

The company's total assets as of the end of this fiscal quarter declined from the end of the previous fiscal year by 37.0 billion yen to 3,354.5 billion yen. This was due primarily to a decrease in trade receivables by 82.8 billion yen resulting from various factors including credit collection, while inventories rose by 42.0 billion yen mainly due to increased work-in-process as recorded in commensurate with progress in job orders under pertinent contracts.

The balance of outstanding debts and corporate bonds rose by 95.9 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year to 638.2 billion yen, with a rise in the ratio of interest bearing debt to total assets to 19.0% (an increase by 3.0 points compared to the end of the previous fiscal year). Trade payables decreased by 95.2 billion yen, while retirement and severance benefits increased by 4.4 billion yen.

Mitsubishi Electric Corporation shareholders' equity decreased by 5.4 billion yen compared to the end of the previous fiscal year to 1,126.9 billion yen, with a rise in ratio of shareholders' equity to total assets of 0.2 points compared to the end of the previous fiscal year to 33.6%. Retained earnings increased by 30.7 billion yen due to 43.6 billion yen recorded as net income attributable to Mitsubishi Electric Corporation and dividend payment of 12.8 billion yen, while accumulated other comprehensive income decreased by 36.0 billion yen mainly due to stronger yen and decline in stock prices.

Cash Flow

Cash flows from operating activities decreased by 59.9 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year to 50.7 billion yen (cash in). Cash flows from investing activities increased by 17.6 billion yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year to 80.1 billion yen (cash out) resulting from an increase in purchases of tangible fixed assets and other factors. Consequently, free cash flow totaled 29.4 billion yen (cash out). Cash flows from financing activities were 75.6 billion yen (cash in) due to an increase in bank loans and other factors.

Forecast for Fiscal 2013 (year ending March 31, 2013)

With the yen remaining strong against euros as well as concerns over the slowdown of the global economy, the consolidated net sales for fiscal 2013, ending March 31, 2013, is expected to fall below the forecast announced on July 31, 2012 mainly in the Industrial Automation Systems and Home Appliances segments. Regarding the consolidated income figures, the company will maintain the previous forecasts, and further strengthen its business improvement measures.

Consolidated earnings forecast for fiscal 2013

	Previous forecast (announced July 31)	Current forecast
Net sales:	3,740.0 billion yen	3,640.0 billion yen	(Unchanged from fiscal 2012)
Operating income:	200.0 billion yen	200.0 billion yen	(11% decrease from fiscal 2012)
Income before income taxes:	180.0 billion yen	180.0 billion yen	(20% decrease from fiscal 2012)
Net income attributable to Mitsubishi Electric Corp.:	120.0 billion yen	120.0 billion yen	(7% increase from fiscal 2012)

Following the issue of overcharged expenses in the company's electronics systems business which arose in January 2012 or after, Mitsubishi Electric was suspended from further bidding by Japan's Ministry of Defense (MOD), Cabinet Satellite Intelligence Center (CSICE), Japan Aerospace Exploration Agency (JAXA), the National Institute of Information and Communications Technology (NICT) and the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications (MIC). Four of the company's affiliates were also suspended from further bidding by the MOD.

Although the company reimbursed 26 million yen to the national treasury on July 4, 2012 in relation to overcharged expenses on contracts with the MIC, the impact to the company's business performance in relation to refund payments for excessive charges and other expenses to the other organizations is currently unclear and thus not considered in the current forecast, but may cause material effects on the Group's future financial results.

Note: The results forecast above is based on assumptions deemed reasonable by the company at the present time, and actual results may differ significantly from forecasts. Please refer to the cautionary statement at the end.

Cautionary Statement

The expectation of operating results herein and any associated statement to be made orally with respect to the company's current plans, estimates, strategies and beliefs and any other statements that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements. Words such as "expects", "anticipates", "plans", "believes", "scheduled", "estimated", "targeted" along with any variations of these words and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements which include but are not limited to projections of revenues, earnings, performance and production.

The Mitsubishi Electric Group is involved in the development, manufacture and sales in a wide range of fields including Energy and Electric Systems, Industrial Automation Systems, Information and Communication Systems, Electronic Devices and Home Appliances, and these operations stretch out globally, not only inside Japan, but also in North America, Europe, Asia and other regions. While the statements herein are based on certain assumptions and premises that the company trusts and considers to be reasonable under the circumstances to the date of announcement, you are requested to kindly take note that actual operating results are subject to change due to any of the factors as contemplated hereunder and/or any additional factor unforeseeable as of the date of this announcement. Such factors materially affecting the expectations expressed herein shall include but are not limited to the following:

(1) Important trends

The Mitsubishi Electric Group's operations may be affected by trends in the global economy, social conditions, laws, tax codes, and regulations.

(2) Foreign currency exchange rates

Fluctuations in foreign currency markets may affect Mitsubishi Electric's sales of exported products and purchases of imported materials that are denominated in U.S. dollars or Euros, as well as its Asian production bases' sales of exported products and purchases of imported materials that are denominated in foreign currencies.

(3) Stock markets

A fall in stock market prices may cause Mitsubishi Electric to record devaluation losses on marketable securities, or cause an increase in retirement benefit obligations in accordance with a decline in the fair value of pension assets.

(4) Supply/demand balance for products and procurement conditions for materials and components

A decline in prices and shipments due to changes in the supply/demand balance, as well as an increase in material prices due to a worsening of material and component procurement conditions may adversely affect the Mitsubishi Electric Group's performance.

- (5) Fund raising
An increase in interest rates, the yen interest rate in particular, would increase Mitsubishi Electric's interest expenses.
- (6) Significant patent matters
Important patent filings, licensing, copyrights and patent-related disputes may adversely affect related businesses.
- (7) Environmental legislation or relevant issues
We may incur losses or expenses owing to changes in environmental legislation or the occurrence of environmental issues. Such changes in legislation or the occurrence of environmental issues may also impact manufacturing and all corporate activities of the Mitsubishi Electric Group.
- (8) Flaws or defects in products or services
We may incur losses or expenses resulting out of flaws or defects in products or services, and the lowered reputation of the quality of all our products and services may affect the entire Mitsubishi Electric group.
- (9) Litigation and other legal proceedings
The Mitsubishi Electric Group's operations may be affected by lawsuits or other legal proceedings against Mitsubishi Electric, its subsidiaries and/or equity-method affiliated companies.
- (10) Disruptive changes
Disruptive changes in technology, development of products using new technology, timing of production, and market introduction may adversely affect the Mitsubishi Electric Group's performance.
- (11) Business restructuring
The Mitsubishi Electric Group may record losses due to restructuring measures.
- (12) Natural disasters
The Mitsubishi Electric Group's operations, particularly manufacturing activities, may be affected by the occurrence of earthquakes, typhoons, tsunamis, fires and other large-scale disasters.
- (13) Other significant factors
The Mitsubishi Electric Group's operations may be affected by the outbreak of social or political upheaval due to terrorism, war, pandemic by new strains of influenza and other diseases, or other factors.

Notes

1. Change in accounting policy

From this fiscal year, the company has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2011-05 "Presentation of Comprehensive Income." Comprehensive income has been presented in the consolidated comprehensive income statement.

Accordingly, the company has adopted ASU 2011-05 retrospectively for the same period of the previous fiscal year. Although ASU 2011-05 requires to present separate line items for reclassification adjustments of items out of accumulated other comprehensive income into net income, the company has not presented separately due to deferral in the application schedule as stated in ASU 2011-12 "Deferral of the Effective Date for Amendments to the Presentation of Reclassifications of Items Out of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income in Accounting Standards Update No. 2011-05."
